

Entry Level Construction Equipment Mechanic – Cranberry Township, PA

~Are you ready to start a career and work for a dealership? Ditch Witch Mid-States is searching for Entry Level who want a place to grow and develop professionally, while providing and helping the team deliver service excellence.

If you have training or experience repairing equipment used in any of the following; construction, agricultural, material handling, automotive, or other types of mobile equipment, we would like to speak with you!

About Us:

Ditch Witch Mid-States is the authorized dealer for Ditch Witch, Hammerhead, Subsite, American Augers and other leading lines of underground construction equipment. The contractors, utilities, governmental agencies that we serve install and repair pipe and cable underground.

We provide factory authorized training, certifications and room for growth. Ditch Witch Mid-States offers a competitive wage, profit sharing, medical insurance, paid life insurance and a 401(k) savings plan.

Job Requirements:

Perform all duties in alignment with Ditch Witch Mid-States core mission, vision, values.

- Valid Driver's License
- Driving record acceptable to our insurance company
- Pass physical & drug screening
- Must have the capacity to travel (overnight at times)
- Able to lift 50+ lbs, proper lifting techniques required
- Attend formal technical training courses

Journeyman Skills/Qualifications:

- Mechanically inclined
- Basic computer skills
- Professional hand tool assortment
- Detail oriented
- Good communications skills
- Ability to multi task and manage assignments

Job Duties:

- Light Mechanical work
- Increased mechanical work with training

- Cleaning/Pressure washing equipment
- Load/Unload Equipment
- other tasks as assigned